V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement1. statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	1-20	YES
	Claims	NONE	NO
Inventive Step (IS)	Claims	1-20	YES
	Claims	NONE	NO
Industrial Applicability (IA)	Claims	1-20	YES
	Claims	NONE	NO

2. citations and explanations (Rule 70.7)

Claims 1-20 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(4), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest storing the request and the solution in the database containing information related to a plurality of experts. The prior art of record enables live communications between an end user seeking a solution and an expert; therefore, there would be no need to store the request and the solution in the database containing information related to a plurality of experts. This feature is important in order to be able to continue charging royalties (to be paid to the expert) for solutions accessed more than once, presumably by various users seeking a solution to similar requests.
